Patchwork Farm Schooling Show

Our farm schooling shows offer great opportunities to take your riding to the next level. Our Academy horses are available for the schooling shows so sign up early to reserve your horse. Horse availability is first come first served. Our schooling shows offer classes for all different levels from flat classes, to crossrails and beyond. Come be a part of the show and see what its all about!

Jeff Cook Clinic 5/28-5/29

Auditors Welcome!

We are pleased to host Jeff Cook again this year. Everyone had a great time and learned a lot last summer. Auditing is open to everyone and encouraged for those looking to enhance their riding skills!

Audit Fee: $25 for the weekend

Since 1979 Jeff Cook has made a successful career out of training both horse and rider for all levels of competition, from low hunters up to Grand Prix show jumpers. While working as assistant trainer for George Morris, Jeff's horses and students won many championships at major shows throughout the United States including Palm Beach, Devon, Lake Placid and South Hampton. On top of his domestic achievements, Jeff and his students have also competed successfully on the international level in Italy and Mexico. He served as coach at the Pan American Games held in Rio in 2007. Jeff has also written numerous articles on horse training including a 28-month series on starting over fences for Practical Horseman magazine. Jeff continues to be a highly regarded and sought after clinician operating from his home base in Bend, Oregon.
